CHERYL BARTON

AUTHOR

JANUARY 2024 BOOK CATALOG

Thank you for going on this journey with me. If you have been unable to tell yet, I love writing about love. I started this journey in 2013 with my very first release, Bachelor Not for Sale. This book started out as my final Creative Writing class project. Who knew that I could actually write a book? I never did, until I did. Once I started, there has been no stopping me. I have discovered that life can be crazy sometimes, but it's the writing that allows me to escape, even if it's for a little while, from life when it's a bit overwhelming.

As you can see from this catalog of my books, I have been busy over the years. There are things that come and go in life. We may start a dream and then either stop it when it gets too hard or come up with a new dream, leaving the old one behind. The one constant that I promised myself is that I would never stop writing. I'm even venturing into a new genre in 2024. I'm tackling my first urban drama novel, Amerikka: Justice or Revenge. I love this story so much. Most of all, the story is based right out of Baltimore where I grew up. Shout out to Zone 18 in the city! That community is where the real MVP's hail from!

Here is a list of my available books and a few of my upcoming one's just for you. Thank you for rocking with me over the years. If you're new to my books, welcome.

All of my books can be found on my website at www.cherylbarton.net and across the internet. It's time to get back to writing!

Happy Reading!

Cheryl
